Restart a taskflow from the point of failure

In Informatica Cloud we are noticing that if a task in a taskflow fails, we aren't able to restart the taskflow from the point of failure. The entire taskflow has to be rerun. Currently to avoid this scenario an external logic has to be applied. It would be great if we can have a rerun from failure option.