

More Control on Status of WF

One of the common scenarios is stopping a WF when the session runs too long. There is a solution in MarketPlace but the problem is with the status of the WF which is "stopped", because it stops the Timer task, even the session was successful. If we can have "success" among the available options of Control task then that would be handy and simple.

Babak